Friday, October 16, 2020
While he was on the front lines we had his back.

At Dominion Energy, 1 in 5 new hires is a Veteran. And if they are called to duty, it’s our duty to take care of them and their families. That’s why we cover any difference between their military pay and their Dominion Energy salary and continue benefits for them and their families for up to five years. We depend on our servicemen and women, and they can depend on us. Visit us at Dominion Energy.com.

Valerie Cassel Oliver is the Sydney and Frances Lewis Family Curator of Modern and Contemporary Art at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts. Prior to her position at the VMFA, she was Senior Curator at the Contemporary Arts Museum Houston where worked from 2000 – 2017. She is currently developing the group exhibition, The Dirty South: Contemporary Art, Material Culture and the Sonic Impulse, scheduled to open at the VMFA April, 2021.

Thank you... I believe in the transformative power of art and that is what continues to propel me forward. I am also propelled by my son... and committed to making this world a better place for him to not only survive, but to thrive!
Leigh Sewell serves as the President for Bon Secours’ Memorial Regional Medical Center, Richmond Community Hospital and Memorial College of Nursing. Leigh has been with Bon Secours for almost 14 years and prior to her current role, Leigh served as senior vice president of strategic operations for Bon Secours Virginia.

Thank you... First, I have to thank my oldest daughters, Taylor and Sydney, for being my inspiration to pursue a career in healthcare. In addition, I thank them for their support along the way as I worked long hours at times and went back to school to get my master’s in health administration. Secondly, I have to thank my mom, Brooke Taylor, who has always been an inspiration to me as a working mother and a strong leader who broke through barriers and glass ceilings along her own journey. She taught me never to give up and to fight for what I believe in. She retired early from an executive position at Anthem to help support the needs of Taylor and traveled all over the country with her seeking intensive physician therapy. Neither of us would be where we are today without her.
Abigail Rogers is the Executive Vice President & Chief Advancement Officer of the YMCA of Greater Richmond. Abby serves on the Out-of-School Alliance in partnership with Mayor Levar Stoney’s Office, Richmond Public Schools, local philanthropist and program providers addressing out-of-school time needs and resources.

Thank you... There are two women who have not only taught me but shown me how to be a mother, a leader, and a professional. Thank you to my mother and my Oma for showing me that I can be anything I want to be and that the key to success is grace and kindness.
Wendy Klein, M.D. is the former medical director of Health Brigade, the oldest free clinic in Virginia. She co-founded the VCU Women’s Health Center, the VCU Institute for Women’s Health, and was the founding president of the Women in Science, Dentistry & Medicine (WISDM) Organization. After retiring from VCU School of Medicine, she also helped to build primary care programs at both the local and national levels for Planned Parenthood.

Thank you...  To my soul mate, Andy and to my children, Dory & Daniel - you are my everything and no words can express my love and my pride and my gratitude.

My deepest thanks to the YWCA for valuing strong women and raising us up, and for all the ways you serve our community.

Beyond that, I am indebted to all of my mentors and colleagues, friends and family. I hope you know who you are because I stand on your shoulders, and I am filled with profound thankfulness.
Rev. Lacette Cross is the pastor of Restoration Fellowship RVA, co-founder of Us Giving Richmond Connections (UGRC)/Black Pride RVA and business owner of Will You Be Whole. Lacette is a former Community Trustbuilding Fellow and is an Equity+Health Fellow for Richmond Memorial Health Foundation. She is currently a doctor of ministry student at the School of Theology at Virginia Union University. She is a community faith leader and activist.

Thank you...  In the spirit of Ubuntu, I am because we are. Thank you to those who shaped me in many ways. Family given and chosen. And Community with whom I get to live out my commitment to love, justice and liberation.
Suzette Denslow is the first woman to be elected as Clerk of the Virginia House of Delegates. She was the Deputy Chief of Staff for Governors Ralph S. Northam and Terence R. McAuliffe. Prior to this position, she served as Chief of Staff to Richmond Mayor Dwight C. Jones. She is a Fellow of the National Academy of Public Administration and adjunct faculty member teaching public budget and finance, state and local government, and a variety of public administration and policy graduate courses at Virginia Tech.

Thank you... Sincere thanks to my friends, colleagues and bosses! All of you have contributed to making the work-life balance a wonderful overlapping series of events.
Kelli Lemon has created a name for herself in Richmond as a self-proclaimed “social entrepreneur.” Her passion to create opportunities for people to interact through food, sports, education, or the arts energizes and drives her. Kelli owns Urban Hang Suite, a collective coffee shop and has been a driving force in initiating the BlkRVA tourism experience, highlighting and celebrating black culture in Richmond.

Thank you... Bernice S. Thomas, Karl, Faye and Lance Lemon, Otis Mallory Jr., Javona Braxton, Faith Wilkerson, Lonnie Battle and the village that supports me. The University of Virginia, VCU, The Eggleston Family, Mama J’s and The Johnson Family, Johnson Marketing, Radio One Richmond, The Hundreds of Strangers I’ve had Coffee with, BLK RVA, Richmond Black Restaurant Experience, the Jackson Ward Collective, The Valentine Museum, the State of Virginia, Maggie L. Walker and all the ancestors that died so I could LIVE!
Myra Goodman Smith is the President and CEO of Leadership Metro Richmond since 2010. Myra has a diverse range of nonprofit management and leadership experience. She served as Vice President for community programs, planning, campaigns and operations for United Way of Greater Richmond and Petersburg for 23 years prior to joining Leadership Metro Richmond.

Thank you… Myra would like to share: Thank you, Mom and Dad, for showing me the power of resilience and of kindness … to my husband, Lawrence, daughter Lauren, and granddaughter Skylar… to United Way and Leadership Metro Richmond. Thank you, Sherrie Armstrong, Willie Dell, Eva Teig Hardy and Shelia Pleasants for inspiring me to stretch further. With love, Myra Laura Lee Chandler has an extensive background in community involvement and leadership. She is currently the chair elect of Virginia Repertory Theatre Board of Directors, is president of the Chapel Guild at the University of Richmond and is the founding President of Maymont’s Council.

Thank you... I send my heartiest thanks to my husband, Ted, for agreeing to join me in my desire to hike in the Himalayas, thus inspiring me to take the risk of getting out of my comfort zone forever! You always understand that my ability to volunteer, to help those in need, is instrumental in the quality and happiness of my life. Thank you, to my mother, Meem, whose example of helping others while teaching full time, raising a family and keeping a clean and organized house was inspirational. To my two beautiful daughters, Katie and Becca, who improved my life beyond measure. I love being your mother and I thank you for respecting who I am and helping me to flourish. To everyone else, take these words to heart: “Life begins at the end of your comfort zone.”
